

Provincial Jamboree Gear Lists

Section Gear List

Note: Cargo/camper trailers cannot be kept on campsites. There will be an opportunity on the morning of arrival day to bring in gear, drop, and go.

As much as possible, we recommend lightweight tents. Poles and lines should be of good quality, and a full fly-sheet (reaching down to ground level) is highly recommended. Tarps big enough to cover a tent are also a good idea for heavy rain. Tents should accommodate at least 3 or 4 persons each and their gear. Follow Scouts Canada Camping Facilities Standards:

1. We must recognize and consider the individual's right to privacy regarding sleeping and sanitary facilities.
2. We must have separate accommodation, based on gender identity, for:
 - a. Youth participants
 - b. Scouters under 18 years of age
 - c. Adults (including parents, adult resource people, and Rover Scout participants)
3. Youth participants may not share accommodation with youth from older or younger Sections.
4. The responsible Commissioner may permit an exception to these requirements in circumstances where safety or the facilities dictate. If sleeping accommodations are shared with youth, at least two adults must be present at all times.
5. Beaver Scouts and Cub Scouts camping facilities must include a weather-resistant shelter suitable for dining and program activities, as well as backup sleeping accommodation.
6. All members may sleep in snow shelters or tents in the winter. Beaver Scouts and Cub Scouts may sleep in snow shelters or tents in the winter with approval of parents/guardians and Scouters.
7. Emergency communication equipment^[1] must be available.

Cook/Dining Shelters

We highly recommend each Section have a waterproof cook and dining shelter. Cook Shelters are available at many retail outlets or you can use a large tarp with a ridge rope, guy lines and pegs.

Packing and Transporting Gear

Regardless of the method you are planning to use to get your gear to the Camp site, it is recommended that sometime prior to Camp, Groups should hold a packing night. All those going to the Camp bring their personal packs with all personal gear packed and ready to go. Though there will be opportunity for gear drop off at the site, all youth and Scouters should be prepared to carry their gear at least a half kilometer should the need arise.

Personal Kit List

The following Personal Kit list is designed to guide you in preparing for your stay at Nor'Wes. You may add other items as deemed necessary.

Generally, weather at the Camp Nor' Wes' site is quite favorable, during the summer. HOWEVER, you should be prepared for variations that range from hot, to freezing, dry to wet. You are responsible for your own belongings – labeling everything is essential. There will be no safekeeping facilities for your valuables at the Camp, so make sure that your personal articles are secured at all times. All youth will have camp T-shirts. However, wearing your group necker is an easy way to quickly identify / get a count of all members while on the move.
